25X1

25X1 1. During the period from 4 through 9 August 1952, the Artillerie Kaserne on the east side of Leninstrasse in Chemnitz (N 51/K 66) quartered about 120 officers, including 1 general, and 900 to 1,000 men, who wore black-bordered crimson epaulets. The general, the commander of the unit, was billeted at 76 Leninstrasse. Six officers and 100 men were daily detached to guard duties in the Sigmar area. 25X1

25X1 2. During the period from 4 through 9 August, the Infanterie Kaserne on Leninstrasse quartered 400 to 500 men wearing red-bordered black epaulets and about 80 officers having ranks from junior lieutenant to and including major. No training activities were observed. 25X1 25X1

- 25X1 4. During the period from 10 through 16 August, the Infanterie Kaserne on Leninstrasse was partially occupied by a small unit whose soldiers wore red-bordered black epaulets. About 60 craftsmen were observed reconditioning the quarters. **
- 25X1 5. During the period from 10 through 16 August, the barracks installations in Ebersdorf quartered 200 to 300 men, who wore red-bordered black or black-bordered crimson epaulets. ***

- [redacted] 6. On 7 August, the western section of the barracks installations in Ebersdorf quartered 300 to 400 men who were red-bordered black epaulets with motor transport insignia. Most of the soldiers observed were recruits. The commanding officer of the unit was a major, [redacted]. The eastern section of the installation quartered about 150 men wearing black-bordered black epaulets and about 50 wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Most of the soldiers seen at this installation were recruits. On 5 August, about 100 men wearing black-bordered black epaulets fell in in the yard of the installation. Thirty men wearing black-bordered black epaulets were conducting combat training at the drill ground, and 150 men, who wore red-bordered black epaulets and carried rifles and light assault equipment marched in groups of about 30 each to the drill ground. On 6 August, about 180 men wearing black-bordered black epaulets engaged in combat training in platoons. [redacted]
